LGBTQ+ Policy Center Event:

The LGBTQ Policy Center at Roosevelt House with the Roosevelt House Human Rights Program, Hunter's Asian American Studies Program, and Hunter's HCAP AANAPISI Project invite you to attend A new public program presented in-person and on Zoom: "THE STRUGGLE FOR QUEER AND TRANS SOUTH ASIAN HUMAN RIGHTS: A CONVERSATION WITH COMMUNITY LEADERS."

Bringing together LGBTQI+ South Asian community leaders as well as Hunter College students, faculty, and neighbors, this event will address the intersections of oppression at the root of how these communities experience surging violence and discrimination. Panelists will also consider how public policy and political institutions can further the struggle for all-encompassing LGBTQI+ liberation."

ROOSEVELT HOUSE

PUBLIC POLICY INSTITUTE
AT HUNTER COLLEGE

JFEW Eleanor Roosevelt Scholars Program

For Hunter students who:

- are interested in public policy and public service
- plan to graduate in 2024
- are enrolled full-time
- demonstrate financial need (FAFSA on file)

Generously funded by the Jewish Foundation for Education of Women, JFEW Scholars are of diverse majors and backgrounds.

For more information and to apply, visit rhppi.org/JFEW

JFEW Honors Program Application:

JFEW Scholars is a two-year cohort program for students interested in public policy and public service. Scholars receive tuition assistance, mentorship, a paid summer internship, a three-day seminar in Washington, D.C. (travel safety permitting), and workshops at the Roosevelt House Public Policy Institute.

For more information, including eligibility, and to apply, please visit rhppi.org/JFEW.

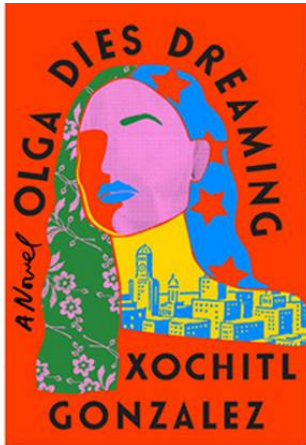

Please note that to be eligible, you must be planning to graduate in 2024, and you cannot be enrolled in the CUNY Macaulay Honors Program.

The application is short, and we encourage applicants to apply early. The deadline is March 15th, 2022. Please let me know if you have any questions! I look forward to reading your application.

OLGA DIES DREAMING

It's 2017, and Olga and her brother, Pedro "Prieto" Acevedo, are boldfaced names in their hometown of New York. Prieto is a popular congressman representing their gentrifying Latinx neighborhood in Brooklyn, while Olga is the tony wedding planner for Manhattan's power brokers.

Despite their alluring public lives, behind closed doors things are far less rosy. Sure, Olga can orchestrate the love stories of the 1 percent but she can't seem to find her own... until she meets Matteo, who forces her to confront the effects of long-held family secrets.

Olga and Prieto's mother, Blanca, a Young Lord turned radical, abandoned her children to advance a militant political cause, leaving them to be raised by their grandmother. Now, with the winds of hurricane season, Blanca has come barreling back into their lives.

Set against the backdrop of New York City in the months surrounding the most devastating hurricane in Puerto Rico's history, Xochitl Gonzalez's Olga Dies Dreaming is a story that examines political corruption, familial strife, and the very notion of the American dream—all while asking what it really means to weather a storm.
