

Department of Psychology

Spring 2020 Seminar

Hunter College
695 Park Ave
Hunter North, Room 612
Psychology Seminar Room

Wednesday
February 26
12pm-1pm

The Social Minds of Humans and Other Animals:

Apes, Dogs, and Human Psychology

Dr. Christopher Krupenye

Dr. Krupenye is a candidate for a tenure-track position in the MA-ABC Program at Hunter College. Currently, he is a Marie Sklodowska-Curie Fellow at the Centre for Social Learning and Cognitive Evolution at the University of St. Andrew, UK (Institute of Behavioural and Neural Sciences). His research interest is in understanding the social minds in humans, apes, and dogs, and his talk will enlighten us with some of his discoveries.