Students interested in Study Abroad should speak with Professor Schinaider about the Spanish Department's summer program in Madrid, Spain, and the January program in Argentina. This program carries a minimum of 6 credit hours that may be applied to the major and 3 that will count as elective credits.

This roadmap reflects the path of a student with no previous background in Spanish. Students with prior knowledge of Spanish may be able to begin with more advanced courses and should see the department for appropriate placement prior to the beginning of their first semester. Students with no previous background in Spanish are advised to take the intensive sequence of SPAN 10300 (6 credits) and SPAN 20300 (6 credits) in their first year in order to enable the start of the major as soon as possible. As an alternative, such students might take the regular sequence of SPAN 10100 and SPAN 10200 in their first year, and then complete SPAN 20100 and SPAN 20200 in summer session. Finally, for students entering the major at the Elementary Spanish level, Study Abroad is highly recommended.

300-level Advanced Literature or Culture course should be distributed among the following categories:

6 credits in Peninsular literature before the 19th century (SPAN 34300, SPAN 34500, SPAN 34600, SPAN 34900, SPAN 35000, SPAN 35300 or SPAN 37000 when appropriate)

9 credits in Latin American literature (SPAN 36000 SPAN 36200 SPAN 36400 SPAN 36500 SPAN 36600 SPAN 36700 SPAN 36800 SPAN 37100), at least 3 credits of which must be in contemporary literature (SPAN 36400 SPAN 36500 SPAN 36600 SPAN 36700 or SPAN 37100 when appropriate)

6 credits chosen from among any course in literature from Spain or Latin America numbered above SPAN 34200.
