Students should consult with a program advisor to choose 6 credits (2 courses) of upper-level social science classes appropriate to students' interest. This component can also be met by another 300- or 400-level urban-related course, if approved by the undergraduate advisor.

DISCLAIMER: Degree maps offer a recommended sequence of courses. Despite our efforts to ensure accuracy, course and program details are subject to change. Therefore, a degree map should not be considered a contract or a promise of course availability. For official requirements, please refer to the Undergraduate Catalog. Your academic advisor is also available to assist with course selection and planning for future semesters.
